Young People at the 9am. With Andrew Pegg leaving us at the end of May we will need to create a rota of adults to help run the young people's group at the 9am service three Sundays a month. If you can help with this important ministry, please email Sam Graham youth@bpchurch.uk.

APCM: To help us plan catering and ensure we can accommodate everyone, please complete the sign-up that has been sent out through email or let the office know latest by 22nd April. Book Club: Our Daytime book club had a most enjoyable session just 2 weeks ago discussing the book "God's Smuggler" by Brother Andrew. We were joined by two members of the Love Buckingham team, one of which had personal experience of Smuggling bibles into Communist country and saw God's hand on them. Next reading material is the 50-60's book The Cross and the Switchblade by David Wilkerson. This promises to challenge and enlarge our faith. We will meet to discuss our thoughts on Thursday May 7th, 1.30pm at Eider Close. This book is easily available on eBay. Any questions contact Flo on flo.thornton@gmail.com

Men's Breakfast: The next Men's Breakfast is on Saturday 9th May. A sign-up email will be sent out shortly but save the date now.

Voluntary Hospital Car Service - urgent need for drivers. The number of requests for trips has steadily increased recently. The service is seeking additional drivers to help cope with this demand.

The hospital car service is also looking for a coordinator to join the team of 3. You need to be organised, methodical, and have reasonable IT skills to take calls from the surgeries and ask the drivers to take on the bookings. Full training and support will be given. Time commitment would be one hour between 4 and 5 each day and then 1-2 hours a day to arrange the drives, one week in four. If you are interested in finding out more about either of these, then please contact Catherine, ccnbhospitalscars@gmail.com
